1. NICKY THEODORE and DASHIE SPEEDENBURG engage in a race throughout the Tech District. Suddenly, BUNSEN BITZ zaps past then, literally shocking both of them. He nabs some fast food and a can of ICE soda for a quick luncheon with CHAP ADAMS at the Industrial District.

2. BUNSEN shows off his new powers he gained from an update, but CHAP could care less, offering tea made with his Goldberg machinery. BUNSEN just sips his soda and talks about wanting to tinker something for the annual science exhibition. CHAP wants to enter too, but believes his inventions were too good for the public. BUNSEN drinks his whole can and bursts in frustration that CHAP had it too good for too long.

3. BUNSEN meets with NUZZIE. BUNSEN hasn’t been able to invent a practical invention.

ACT 2

1. NUZZIE meets with CHAP to talk about his luncheon with BUNSEN. CHAP always thought he was jealous, thinking back to when he first met BUNSEN. BUNSEN tosses out one of his broken inventions at the Industrial District's dump, feeling disappointed. He then sees CHAP, tinkering his house while hovering with his propeller hat. BUNSEN hops up, but can't stay up in the air, and wishes he could fly.

2. CHAP never thought BUNSEN would go to great lengths to try and beat him. NUZZIE blames it on the new update and wonders what she could do before her twin brother goes berserk. CHAP and NUZZIE begin to think up a plan.

3. Meanwhile, BUNSEN freaks out and crazes for more soda. He desperately tries to break NUZZIE'S piggy bank with a hammer, but resists the urge and throws the hammer out the window. However, the bank smashes on the floor, so BUNSEN buys himself a pack of ICE soda bottles. He starts work on a new invention in his lab room, drinking a soda bottle in each step and growing more insane while his process grows haphazard and scribbled.

1. It's the opening day of the science exhibition, and BUNSEN sneaks in due to his invention being deemed “dangerous” He encounters NUZZIE.

2. Despite CHAP’S best efforts, BUNSEN shoots him away and collapses on the ground. NUZZIE approaches him to see CHAP’S robotic arms detached, leaving him with stubby arms. He said he invented things so he can reach things himself and not feel unremarkable. NUZZIE gets an idea and leaves CHAP with a first aid kit.

3. NUZZIE fights BUNSEN. She soon plugs BUNSEN into an extension plug and absorbs too much electricity, causing him to have an electrical explosion. BUNSEN is churned, but still conscious. CHAP points out the patch update, which NUZZIE let occur, recovering BUNSEN.
